

Century III Mall is a leading retail destination located in West Mifflin, PA. It is the fourth largest shopping mall in the Greater Pittsburgh area and second largest in the trade area with over 1.3 million square feet of leasable space. The mall benefits from being in the center of the main retail hub in West Mifflin, which allows Century III Mall to attract more shoppers from greater distances.

Century III Mall is strategically located off Highway 885 and Highway 51, which represents two of the area's main vehicular thoroughfares. In addition, the Allegheny County Airport is within one mile of the mall.
